

The White House has appointed Dr. Albert D. Wheelon as a consultant in the Executive Office of the President. In this capacity, he will serve as a consultant on disarmament and guided missile matters ^{with} Dr. George Kistiokowsky who is the President's Special Assistant for science and technology. The same office is the focus for activities of the President's Scientific Advisory Committee (PSAC).

*White House
Sentinel article*
